THE LEGEND OF PITFALL

Many years ago there was a daring adventurer who traveled the world in search of ancient legends and lost treasures. His journeys took him across the seven seas and to the ends of the earth. He ventured into vast uncharted regions filled with unthinkable dangers. Word of his exploits filtered back to civilization and he became larger than life—a legend. This great explorer was Pitfall Harry.

After many successful quests, Harry settled down to raise his son, Harry Junior. As a hip 18 year old, Harry Jr. developed a deep sense of adventure—and a bit of an attitude. He inherited his father's love of the unknown and soon experienced many exciting quests of his own.

Hearing of his son's thrilling escapades, Pitfall Harry realized how much he longed for the life he once knew. So together the daring duo set off for the jungles of Central America in search of the lost treasures of the Mayans.

But something went terribly wrong. . .

Day 3—The Mayan Adventure

After days of traveling through the jungle, Harry Jr. and I have finally reached the heart of the ancient Mayan Empire. It's been a long journey, but the real danger lies ahead, for we are close to discovering the lost treasure of Uaxactun.

According to legend, the treasure is guarded by the spirit of an ancient Mayan warrior—Zakelua: Lord of Evil. Thousands of years ago, Zakelua attempted to conquer the Mayan lands so he could rule the Empire. He was finally defeated after many battles, and he vanished, never to be seen again.

My research on Mayan culture and legend is recorded in the following pages. If something should happen to me, it is my hope that Harry Jr. take my personal log and use it as a guide to continue our quest. I only hope that it will be enough help—if ever it must be used.

P.H.

MAYAN ARTIFACTS

Day 7—Mayan Artifacts

There are several artifacts that Harry Jr. and I hope to find during our journey. Many Mayans believed these ancient idols and relics were created and sent to earth by Itzamna—the Mayan God of Knowledge.

TIME KEEPER—According to legend, this powerful artifact temporarily freezes time after being touched.

MAYAN CHILI PEPPER—Said to endow the beholder with super-human strength, causing temporary increase in running and jumping abilities.

SACRED HEART—A spiritual beating heart that restores a portion of lost health to its finder.

LOCATION IDOL—Used by Mayan travelers to mark their location. Holds magical properties that point traveler in general direction of desired path. Allows traveler to return to marked point after traveler is unable to continue journey.

GOLDEN IDOL—Rare Mayan artifact with the power to bestow its finder with a second chance at completing their journey.

TREASURE PIECES—It is reported that pieces of Mayan treasure—gold coins, silver and gold bars, diamond rings—are hidden throughout the Empire.

P.H.

MAYAN FOES

Day 9—Mayan Foes

I could find very little information about Mayan foes. Witnesses to evil doings in the Mayan realm have a tendency to disappear mysteriously. Therefore, I have only been able to compile a partial record on enemies.

SKELETONS—Were soldiers in Zakelua's army at one time. Groups have been spotted recently near Copan.

SPIRITS OF CHAAC—Were followers of Chaac—the Mayan God of War and sacrifice. It is said that these spirits have a strong command of fire.

JAGUAR—This sleek, powerful animal was a favorite pet of Zakelua and served as his personal bodyguard. Recent sightings include the nearby jungles.

HAWKS—Served as messengers for Zakelua during times of war; have been spotted in Tikal and areas near water.

GARGOYLES—According to legend, many of the ancient Mayan ruins are guarded by stone gargoyles that come to life when approached.

SNAKES—Favorites of Zakelua. These creatures are common throughout Mayan lands and can be very dangerous.

VAPOR GHOST—Reportedly a product of Zakelua's sorcery—created to ward off anyone who has sights on the lost treasure of Uaxactun.

There have also been sightings of Zakelua, though no one has been able to document his appearance. Some Mayans believe that Zakelua himself, using ancient Mayan sorcery, wields control over the creatures that inhabit the Mayan Empire.

P.H.

THE LOST CIVILIZATION

Day 12—A Lost Civilization

During my studies I discovered that the Mayan civilization flourished throughout what is now Mexico and Central America for nearly four-thousand years. In some areas, Mayan culture lasted until the early 1500's, but many of the prominent cities disappeared by A.D. 900.

Although many Mayan sites have been discovered, little is known of the day-to-day activities of the Mayan people. What is known, is that they built elaborate cities and temples without aid from the wheel, metal tools or animals.

Theirs was a civilization full of mystery and magic. Long has there been talk of ghosts and evil spirits roaming through the ruined cities and forests of the lost Mayan Empire. It is this civilization of mystery and magic that I long to explore.

P.H.

MAYAN LANDS

Day 13—Mayan Lands

Harry Jr. and I have traveled for days in search of the lost treasure. Although it's been a long and tough expedition, it is far from over. The road ahead is full of danger.

JUNGLE OF CEIBA—An ancient and mysterious place uninhabited since the 1400's. Danger lurks from every side on this maze-like path. Should be able to use surrounding elements to navigate.

XIBALBA FALLS—Named after the demons believed to exist throughout the Mayan realm. Only the skillful can travel this dangerous path without plummeting into the raging water below. Must be careful!

TAZAMUL MINES—Lost for centuries, this series of treacherous caverns is believed to be inhabited by deadly creatures and filled with hazardous barriers. Could possibly use abandoned mine car as transportation.

LOST CITY OF COPAN—

Located in the heart of the ancient Mayan Empire, this 2000-year-old, decaying exterior is loaded with deadly traps and even deadlier enemies.

COPAN

TEMPLE—No one who has entered this mysterious labyrinth has ever returned.

P.H.

Day 14—The Adventure Continues

Should Harry Jr. and I actually survive the journey through the known Mayan territory, we will need all of our remaining luck to continue the expedition. A long road awaits us.

LAKAMUL RAIN FOREST
YAXCHILAN LAGOON
BALANKANCHIE MINE
TIKAL RUINS
TIKAL TEMPLE

P.H.

BONUS WORLDS

Bonus worlds hidden throughout the game could yield you great rewards if you're skilled enough to find them.

Loltun Secret Vault

You will enter a room with three levers, labeled A, B and C, on a wall. Directly above each lever is a light. These lights flash in random order, creating a pattern. Repeat this pattern by pressing A, B and C buttons on your Controller. If you successfully repeat all of the patterns, the vault will open and you will be rewarded!

A Trip Back

A magical time warp, created by the evil Zakelua, is hidden somewhere in the game. This warp will transport Harry Jr. back to a primitive time... a time that may bring back a few memories. The rules are simple, you have 20 minutes to collect all goodies...or else. Here's a hint—watch out for the scorpions!

STRATEGY TIPS

- Collect as many Treasure Pieces as you can. Every fifty points earns you a Continue.
- Use the Super Shot to help defeat deadly enemies or blast through nasty web blockades.
- Try to be downhill from your enemies when fighting.
- Be sure to use Mayan Artifacts and Weapons wisely. These Mayan goods work for only a limited amount of time and/or number of uses.
- Remember to grab the Mayan Boomerang after each use or it will disappear.
- Try using abandoned mine cars or other items as platforms.
- You can do more than just stand on top of tree stumps.
- Don't be afraid to explore—you may find hidden surprises.
- Keep moving when you're above the jumping crocodiles.
